EMPIRE CASES

Strong Array of Counsel in the Case and Long Trial is Expected.

The examining trial of J. W. Anderson, Ed and Jim Goldsborough Ellis Deckard and Geo. Philips, charged with shootings from ambush at John Fields and the murder of officer R. H. Coffey, at Empire, Oct. 26, was called yesterday and is now in progress before Judge Cansler.

The court decided to try all of the men jointly on both charges. The prisoners are represented by attorneys W. H. Yost, R. Y. Thomas, Everett Jennings, C. H. Bash, Southall & Son, and J. C. Daffy. The prosecution is represented by County Attorney Anderson, Breathitt & Fowler and Wood & Son.

There are 75 witnesses and the trial will occupy several days. But little progress was made in the case yesterday.

GRADING COMPLETED

Cadiz Railroad Ready For The Track at Gracey.

Rolling Stock To be Purchased This Week And Track-Laying Begun.

The work of grading the Cadiz & Gracey railroad was finished last week and the roadbed is ready for the track. The laying of ties was begun yesterday and the work will proceed rapidly, ties and rails being laid from this end. The road comes into Gracey through the Bryant field and connects with the Illinois Central road at the junction, two hundred yards north of the town.

A fill of nine feet had to be made in Bryant's field. The line of the road is very crooked and all heavy cuts or fills were avoided, wherever possible.

Mr. W. C. White, who is President of the road, which is ten miles long, has gone east to buy the rolling stock this week. The Cadiz people are counting confidently on having the road completed before January 1st.

It is believed now that the L. C. and not the L. & N., will operate the road under some sort of an arrangement.

ONLY HALF CROP

Of Corn Raised in Kentucky This Year.

The final crop report of the season was issued Saturday by the Kentucky Agricultural Department. It shows that only 54 per cent of the crop of corn was harvested and that 80 per cent of a crop of wheat was raised, and 45 per cent of a crop of tobacco. The hemp and tobacco crops, especially in the dark tobacco districts, were good. Ninety-six per cent of a crop of hemp was harvested, and the quality of tobacco is placed at 90 per cent.

TWENTY-FIVE

The Baptist Revival is growing to large proportions under the preaching of Dr. Broughton. Services at the Tabernacle Sunday afternoon and night were great union meetings. At night 3000 people were present and 25 persons went forward for prayer. The services will continue this week at the Baptist church afternoon and night.

THREE SHOT

Jerry Wilson Killed And Two Other Men Wounded.

Fatal Affray at a Baptizing Near Hinsletown Sunday.

A fatal row occurred at the colored Baptist church at Hinsletown Sunday, in which one man was killed and two others wounded.

The trouble started at the scene of a baptizing near the church and Henry Davie and Abe Allen emptied their pistols at each other, shooting five times each.

The result of this shooting was that Allen was hit once in the leg and grazed on the side by a second bullet.

His wounds were not serious. Davie was not hurt in this encounter. The crowd at the baptizing was broken up and Davie ran to the church a few yards away, reloading his pistol as he went. He was followed by several of the deacons and other church members who undertook to arrest him. Davie started to run, when several of them followed and a running fire ensued. Davie was hit in the leg and slightly wounded by some one of the pursuing party and stopped long enough to put a bullet into the heart of Jerry Wilson, who fell dead in his tracks.

Davie then resumed his flight and disappeared. He is a young negro about 21 years old, who lived at Mr. Henry Kelly's.

Jerry Wilson, who was killed, was about 45 years old and was a prominent leader in the church. In the second fight ten shots were fired, making about twenty in all.

The minister in charge of the church was Rev. Joe Buckner, of this city.

OFFICIAL FIGURES

Only Six Doubtful Ballots Held To Be Valid.

These Made a Net Gain of Two Votes For Feland And Other Republicans.

A canvass of the votes cast in Christian county was made Friday by the board of commissioners, Sheriff Jno. J. Barnes, C. A. Brasher and M. H. Nelson.

It was found that ten of the 28 precincts had sent in no returns, the officers having locked up everything in the boxes with the ballots, which cannot be opened for six months. The county clerk had provided the duplicate certificates held by the judges of the election, and these were accepted as official; in the missing precincts not returned, 41 doubtful ballots were reported as not counted. These will not be accessible for six months, but judging by the other precincts, but few of them could be counted for either side. The official count made a change of only six votes.

These were all stamped near the devices, but outside the circle. Four were counted for the Republican ticket and two for the Fusion ticket. The table given shows the official majorities. Feland in the senatorial race has 445 majority.

KNOW THE LANGUAGE.

A Tale of the Philippines, Who Said to Talk Spanish.

Capt. Theodore Sedgwick, who has just returned from the Philippines, tells in the St. Louis Post-Dispatch, a funny story of a native, a man of some importance in his province, who had made up in a few words of English what he knew. From dealing with the soldiers and changing their money for them he had learned to say "I have no change" and "I have another." The word "good-bye" was the next in his vocabulary. From the side of a blacking box he learned to pronounce the legend: "Rickey's is the Best."

There his education ended, but he gloried in that much and aired his knowledge on every possible occasion. This fact was a source of great merriment to those officers of the army who were stationed in his province, and who came in constant contact with him.

One day it was announced that the commanding general of the district would pay a visit of state to the town, with a view to inspecting the civil government and the condition of the soldiers stationed there.

"Juarez," one of the officers said to the English-speaking native, but talking in Spanish, "how is your chance to show the general your knowledge of English. You say over what you know to him and he may make you the civil governor of the province." He told him to hear the Filipinos talk.

Juarez was ambitious, so the offered opportunity gave him great joy. He prepared for the visit with great ceremony and, attired in his finest raiment, he, with the others, met the general as he alighted. As soon as the introductions were over Juarez began to speak in a loud voice to the general.

"Ah, el General, good-bye, I have no change, Rickey's is the best, but a nother."

The army officers had to explain to the general that Juarez was a harmless half-wit in order to save him from being sent to prison for lack of money.

HUGO AND NAPOLEON.

Story of the Novelist's Difficulties with the French Ruler.

A former concierge of the Hotel Victor Hugo lived in the time of the coup d'etat has been discovered, says London Truth. He is 90 years old, and used to be a master of the poet when he had a dinner party. This nonagenarian's name, is Lagoutte, or "the drop," and he served 14 years as a private in an infantry regiment. He is no longer a concierge. An interesting souvenir, the autograph portrait of Victor Hugo, is pointed to with pride by the old man. It hangs on the wall of his only room. The inscription underneath is in the poet's handwriting: "Haine vigoureuse de l'anarchie, tendre et profond amour du peuple."

Lagoutte remembers a visit paid by Louis Napoleon in 1848 to Victor Hugo. The visitor had been charged in the papers with planning the liquidation of the Emperor. He introduced himself and said: "I am the man who has cut the throat of the Emperor. The conspirator was stamped on his whole person; but he took Victor Hugo in. The concierge took up his card, as Louis Napoleon entered Victor Hugo's salons, which was a regular Old Curiosity Shop, he said these words: "I am calumniated, and have come to give you an explanation." They remained good enough friends until Victor Hugo discovered that the price-president had befriended him. He and his sons, in consequence of his discovery, set up an opposition paper, L'Evenement, which was soon prosecuted, and one of his sons was sentenced to a long imprisonment. After the coup d'etat Victor Hugo was obliged to fly from France. He took refuge in Brussels. An auction was called by Mme. Hugo, and all his rare furniture was sold in the courtyard of the house where Lagoutte was concierge.

An Elaborate Pipe.

Probably the most elaborate meerschaum pipe in this country is now in process of coloring by a New York merchant, who bought it from a local manufacturer recently for $1,800. The pipe is known as a "Shadoin" pipe to the trade, and is a wonderfully carved reproduction of the painting "St. John in His Bath." It represents an archway grouped around a fountain, and either St. John is concealed behind the fountain or in it; he is not in sight, at any rate. The figures are chiseled from a solid piece of meerschaum, which was imported from Turkey. The labor expended upon it extended over a period of two years, and the amber mouthpiece alone cost $300.—N. Y. Post.

TWO FISH OF ONE HOOK.

Angler Has Two Witnesses to Back Up His Story.

It is well known that there are two fish of one hook. But when it comes to a fishing trip last week and a man named Smith, who had caught two fish of one hook, and at the same time, he had a witness to back up his story.

Then Mr. Smith, who is one of the well known men of the place, told the news of the story. The teller of the tale follows the story, and in the fishing season takes parties out fishing. He was out alone the other day when, down off the mussel beds of Conitum, he baited his hook and dropped it over the side. He had, he says, barely settled down to wait when he felt a tug, and then, as quick as thought, another on the line. But even as quickly as the second tug succeeded the first, he had the line on his way to the surface. It was shaking up that hook and its contents with the dexterity born of long practice.

When it reached the surface he was so astonished, old fisherman as he is, that he almost forgot for a second to haul it into the boat. On the hook—an ordinary tautog hook—hung two fish, one a big tautog, weighing about one pound, and the other a choget, weighing a pound and a half. The tautog had taken the bait first. The hook had passed through a corner of his upper lip, leaving a part of the bait still on the barb of the steel. Then the choget, coming fast after, had seen the piece of bait, and with the cunning that gives it the name of choget elsewhere, had tried to seize the bait and get away. It had failed and was impaled fairly.

"Sid" Corneil and John Neville saw it," said Mr. Smith, in telling of the catch. "I held 'em up on the hook and showed 'em, and they can tell it all straight. And I'm the only man in Pawtucket that's ever done it." He continued, "ever caught two fish on one hook. Don't you forget that, my boy. No one else ever had it of it. And I can prove it by 'Sid' Corneil and John Neville."

It is a good story, says the Providence Journal, but the season is young and there have been few as yet. The reputation of the teller in the village is such that the story is believed in by his friends.

President McKinley's assassination and Mr. Roosevelt's accession to the Presidency are the two dominant topics in the October Review of Reviews. Aside from the momentous treatment of illustrated accounts, a fully of the last days of President McKinley is contributed by Mr. Walter Wellman, the accomplished newspaper correspondent, who was himself at Buffalo when the great tragedy occurred, with hand knowledge of all the details of the tragedy.

Mr. Wellman's comprehensive article is followed by a brief character sketch of the President, and a list of the many Presidents. From the pen of Commissioner H. B. F. Macfarland, of the District of Columbia, there is also an article on the President, with portraits of Mr. and Mrs. Roosevelt, and the six Roosevelt children. The Review presents the full text of Mr. McKinley's Buffalo speech, made on the day before the shooting, and of Mr. Roosevelt's Minneapolis address of September 2.

A blowing cave has been found by oil-well borers in Wayne county. The Blowing Cave is not far from Dry Fork and it is so named because a wind is constantly coming from it in a wild sweep and it can be heard coughing and shrieking in side this cavern. ## Itching Skin Distress by day and night—That is the complaint of those who are so unfortunately as to be afflicted with Eczema or Salt Rheum—and outward applications do not cure. They can't.

The source of the trouble is in the blood—makes that pure and this itching, burning, itching skin disease will disappear.

"I was taken with an itching on my arms which proved very disagreeable. I concluded it was salt rheum and bought a bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla. In two days after I began taking it I felt better and it never had any skin disease since." Mrs. I. A. Ward, Care Point, Md.

Li Hung Chang's death was caused by the desperate effort of Russia to obtain his signature to the secret Manchu treaty without the approval of the ministers of the empire. Li insisted on first getting the approval of the ministers, and on the Russian minister refusing to permit him to make public the treaty, Li refused to sign the treaty and flew into a rage, which caused the fatal hemorrhage. Meantime Japan had obtained an inkling of the proceedings and succeeded in getting the Empress Dowager to direct Li not to sign. He was already unconscious when this order was received.

Eq. Thos. H. Major made a most creditable race for magistrate in the Longview district. The district is made up of five overwhelming Republican districts, but Eq. Major succeeded in cutting down the majority to only 68 votes over a popular Republican. He carried his own precinct almost solidly and virtually wiped out the big majorities in two others.

The vote in Hopkins county had not been counted in the Senatorial race yesterday afternoon, as the board is holding night sessions. It is expected that Feland's lead of 9 votes will be overcome by the canvass of 21 doubtful ballots not counted.

WANT FREE PIKE.

Clarksville Wrought up Over Loss of Trade.

A special from Clarksville to Sunday's American says:

"The business men of Clarksville are much wrought up over an alleged loss of trade to Hopkinsville on account of the workings of the toll system. The recent purchase of that portion of the Hopkinsville pike lying in Christian county by that county, resulting in the abolishment of the toll system, it is claimed, has turned much trade that otherwise came here to Hopkinsville, the Montgomery County portion of the pike being still maintained as a toll pike. An effort will be made to induce the County Court to take early action looking not only to absolute purchase and freeing of this pike, but of all the pikes and ferries in the county along similar lines lately pursued in Davidson County. Next week a meeting of all the business interests will be held in connection with a meeting of the Board of Trade to take such action on this subject as seems best under the circumstances."

A Village Blacksmith Saved His Little Son's Life.

Mr. H. H. Black, the well-known village blacksmith at Grahamsville, Sullivan Co., N. Y., says: "Our little son, five years old, has always been subject to croup, and so have feared many times that he would die. We have had the doctor and used many medicines, but Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is now our sole reliance. It seems to dissolve the tough mucus and by giving frequent doses when the croupy symptoms appear we have found that the dreaded croup is cured before it gets settled." There is no danger in giving this remedy for it contains no opium or other injurious drug and may be given as confidently to a babe, to an adult. For sale by all druggists.

Christian County Club Will Try Old Virginia.

Arkansas May Be Abandoned If Suitable Arrangements Can Be Made For Future Hunts.

As has been previously stated in the KENTUCKIAN the Christian County hunting club will not take their annual hunt in Arkansas this season. Suitable hunting grounds could not be conveniently secured and the club decided to abandon this trip, but several members of the club have decided to go to Virginia, where they will look over the country with a view of establishing grounds for future hunts.

The latter part of this week or early in next week Capt. S. R. White and Messrs. J. R. Caudle, P. B. Pendleton, Pats Barker and F. S. Beaumont will leave for the Old Dominion, and on arrival, will go into camp about thirty miles from Petersburg, where they will spend several weeks. Deer and turkeys are reported plentiful in the section of country chosen for the hunt and the gentlemen composing the party anticipate some excellent sport. All kinds of small game is said to be quite abundant, also, and much fun is promised.

The party will carry along saddles, dogs, guns and ammunition. Arrangements having been made at Petersburg, and cooks at the other end of the line, several parties joined in Virginia, and with who are thoroughly familiar with the best hunting grounds in the south-eastern part of the state.

In the event suitable arrangements can be made the entire club will hereafter have their annual hunts in that state instead of Arkansas.

THE CITY VOTE.

A Hitch Also Found in the Court Returns.

It was found that all of the returns from the city election were missing. The books and official certificates were all locked up in the ballot boxes and as no duplicate certificates were at hand, it looked for awhile like a serious complication had arisen. After a delay of two hours the certificates of election officers were gathered up and the count proceeded.

The various ward votes were as follows:

SCOTT'S EMULSION OF COD LIVER OIL WITH HYPOPHOSPHITES OF LIME & SODA

will generally correct this difficulty. If you will put from one-tenth to half a teaspoonful in the baby's bottle three or four times a day you will soon see a marked improvement. For larger children, from half to a teaspoonful, according to age, dissolved in their milk, if you so desire, will very soon show its great nourishing power. If the mother's milk does not nourish the baby, she needs the emulsion. It will show an effect at once both upon mother and child.

Use and follow all directions. SCOTT & BOWNE, Chemists, New York.

Resolutions of Respect.

WHEREAS, It has pleased Almighty God, the Supreme Architect of the Universe, the maker and giver of all good gifts and graces, to remove from our member our esteemed brother Robert H. Coffey, who was shot down while in the performance of duty on October 26th, 1901.

Therefore be it resolved, That in the death of Bro. Coffey, Hopkinsville Lodge, No. 37 has lost one of its most devoted members, the wife a kind and loving husband, the children an indulgent father, the community a useful citizen.

Resolved, that we extend to the bereaved family our heartfelt sympathy and direct their torn and bleeding hearts to the Supreme Architect of the Universe for comfort and consolation.

Resolved, that we set apart 3 places in our records for these resolutions, send a copy to the sorrowing family; also that we wear the usual badge of mourning for thirty days.

Committee, J. B. GALBREATH, GEO. W. CLARK, F. W. BUCKNER.

SMALL BEGINNINGS.

Incident Showing Character of Things That World Opines. "Did it ever occur to you," said a local observer, "that every opinion must have a beginning? I mean this: You have a decided belief on any given point, and say to yourself: 'I have always thought so and so,' or 'I can't remember when I did not believe this and that,' but, as a matter of fact, if you go back to the beginning you will find that your impression hesitated like a drop of water on the top of Mount Furka, wavering before deciding whether to run down one side of the mountain into the Rhine or down the other into the Rhone. In the case of the water the chance probably decides one way or the other, but once the raindrop is rushing down its mountain torrent bed it forges its hesitation and is willing to swear it never had an idea of pursuing any other route. So it is with ideas, as I saw newly demonstrated a few days ago in a street car. It was one of the old-fashioned, side-seated affairs and was comfortably filled. We had gone a considerable distance when a man in a corner jumped up and declared he had been carried past his corner, though he had warned the conductor to put him off at Buffalo avenue or some other street. The conductor denied all knowledge of any such request, and when the man swore he would ride to the end of the line and come back without paying another fare, the official 'loved' the gent would pay or get off. The passenger then took out his notebook and asked the address of the gentleman and the address of the gentleman turned to him, and the conductor responded by telling down the name and residence of the person vis-a-vis, and in a few minutes all the passengers on the car had been inscribed for or against the kicker. Now is where the curiousness of the affair begins. It is doubtful if anyone in the car really knew the first thing about the right or wrong of the case, but the mere fact of inscription in one or other of those memorandum books turned the current of their beliefs. Those who had gone down in the conductor's book began to talk of hoars in public places, while the men inscribed to the credit of the passenger denounced corporate aggression, and by the time I reached my corner little was needed to set the two factions by the ears, and I have no doubt there was some tall and lofty swearing done when the matter came up for investigation.—N. O. Times-Democrat.

GRACEY CLUB

Can you afford to experiment with unknown and untried brands of Fertilizers, when you can get right here what you know to be good? Every farmer knows Armour and Homestead, Eagle and Ox Brand Fertilizers.
